

Dear Parents,

I am so excited to present a new online art gallery that we can participate in at Saint Andrew! Artsonia manages student art portfolios in a safe and educational manner, developing student's pride and self esteem while involving parents and relatives in arts education. This is truly an online art museum that will digitally store your children's artwork. The added benefit is their online store. You can purchase notecards, tshirts, canvas', and so much more with your child's artwork. Saint Andrew will receive 20% of the sales which is incredible. Over 100,000 art teachers are participating all over the world.

Artsonia takes privacy very seriously, and will only publish first names with a number. Your email address is the primary way for communication to happen. You will be notified, through an email, once a piece of art has been uploaded to Artsonia. The artwork will be downloaded to our school page on their website. You will find their first name/# under their piece. Here is an example:

Below is the permission slip for you to sign. Please print it out and sign if you are interested. Once I have the slips I will create the class roster. Then an email will be generated from Artsonia to notify you to set up your child's account. After just wait for the artwork to arrive on the site! I hope to do 2 grades a month. More info to follow...
